In a heart-stopping moment, Shelby Slaughter, Children's Pastor & Author, experienced a cardiac arrest while driving, leading to a tragic accident. She was found lifeless at the scene, with no heartbeat and no breath. Medical indicators suggested she had been gone for an astounding 45 minutes, and the swelling in her brain confirmed the unimaginable.

But God intervened with his miraculous power! Through the unwavering faith and prayers of her incredible community, Shelby was not only resurrected but experienced a profound healing journey.

Shelby and her husband, Nathan, are now the founders of Timeline Kids, a ministry that equips children's pastors and parents with powerful tools to see entire families transformed by the Gospel. God took their suffering as a family and turned it into a redemptive purpose in developing a children's curriculum! With her background in early childhood education and his expertise in design and video editing, this dynamic duo has created the amazing Timeline Kids Curriculum that's making waves!
